Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThis collection, Helen Simpson's third and best yet, is a loosely linked set of stories about women - at work, at home and on holiday - that is poignant, perceptive, often sad and frequently funny.Revue de presse"It's a brilliant, painful, funny and courageous book" (Esther Freud Guardian)"Simply tremendous... She is a witch, with the surest hand in contemporary fiction" (Philip Hensher Spectator)"Her limpid, chaste, luscious fiction describes real lives" (John Lancaster Daily Telegraph)"Her stories are - for those who, like me, recognise the truth in every word - like a reprieve... Sharp, poetic and marvellously witty" (Kate Kellaway Observer)"Motherhood has long been a subscription-only sort of subject. Helen Simpson has found a way to tell it, and I hope that people beyond the constituency margins are listening"
