Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurIt all started with Paris . . .At the top of the Eiffel Tower, a young man proposes to his girlfriend - and in that second, everything changes - for the couple, but also for their families back in Ireland . . .Leila's been nursing a badly broken heart since her husband upped and left, but she's determined to put on a brave face for the bride. Vonnie, a widow and exceptional cake-maker, is just daring to let love back into her life, although someone seems determined to stop it. And head teacher Grace finds the impending wedding of her son means that she's spending more time with her ex-husband. After all those years apart, is it possible she's made a mistake?Revue de presse"IT STARTED WITH PARIS is a huge bear hug of a novel. Cathy Kelly has written a warm hearted story of the inevitable roller coaster of romantic love and the more important task of loving one's self. I savored every page of this book."Elin Hilderbrand, author of THE RUMOR"Each character in this expansive cast is well-developed . . . Kelly is a skilled writer."Kirkus"In the latest novel from popular Irish novelist Kelly (The House on Willow Street, 2013), wedding plans are the connection between several characters. . . . Kelly slowly weaves the threads of her story together, ultimately creating a pleasant tapestry depicting the different ways people find and rediscover love."BooklistPrsentation de l'diteurIt all started with Paris . . .At the top of the Eiffel Tower, a young man proposes to his girlfriend - and in that second, everything changes - for the couple, but also for their families back in Ireland . . .Leila's been nursing a badly broken heart since her husband upped and left, but she's determined to put on a brave face for the bride.
