Following this, Jim was involved in a number of business ventures including helping his two sons with their own successful sports careers, and owning a champion sire race horse until, in 1995, he once again took up a career in racing as a Classic Racer and Demonstration Rider. eBook ISBN: 978-1-845845-49-0 (9781845845490) Print ISBN: 978-1-901295-35-1 (9781901295351) Revue de presse

A successful businessman and also a very good writer, Jim Redman was awarded the MBE in 1971. This is an excellent book and an unrivalled narrative of the life of a professional road racer. --Classic Motorcycle, December 2008

The extraordinary life story of the penniless orphan and colonial adventurer who, aboard the most glamorous racing motorcycles, roared to six hard-fought World Championships and won for himself the reputation of hard man of the race track and shrewd, steely professional of the paddock. Compared to Redman, modern G.P. riders are a bunch of adolescent softies. --Andy Kershaw

Any fan of motorcycle racing will find Jim Redman: Six Times World Champion absorbing; any fan of true stories of grit and determination overcoming impossible odds will find it hard to put down. --
