Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThirty-nine-year-old Kate had almost given up on love when she met her fiance. Now she's planning for the wedding she never dreamed she'd have. But things seem to be slipping out of her control. Diana, born on the day of the 1981 Royal Wedding, never doubted that one day she would find her prince. Newly engaged, and with daddy's credit card in her grasp, she's in full Bridezilla mode. Against the backdrop of the other couple getting married in April 2011, both women prepare for the most important day of their lives. But will each bride get her perfect day? Or will it all become a right royal fiasco?Revue de presse'Whip yourself into a royal wedding frenzy . . . Fans of chick lit will find this fun, frothy reading' * (Heat)'Fun and perfect if you enjoy frothy, frivolous yarns.' (Sun)'Hilariously funny in its bridezilla moments, but sweetly poignant in others, this is a brilliant tale of families and fairy tales' *****

(Closer)'Manby is on tip-top form here, the ending in particular was quite hilarious and is definitely a book

Manby fans and Royal Wedding fans will absolutely lap up.' (www.chicklitreviews.com)Prsentation de l'diteurThirty-nine-year-old Kate had almost given up on love when she met her fiance.
