Description :

Prsentation de l'diteur Polly has been married to Arthur for ten years when she meets James Hammond. He's her Road Not Taken. The One That Got Away. He's also rich, and in one week he's inviting her to his hotel in the country to give her the job she's always wanted. He also wants her. Polly is so tempted. Arthur is gorgeous, but he's grumpy. He insists he can change, but can he? After ten years, can you learn to love? And if you could, would you still choose your partner? Revue de presse "Full of laugh-out-loud moments" (Sunday Mirror) "The funniest book about relationships I've read in years" (Lisa Jewell) "This is the kind of book that draws looks from strangers if read in public as it will have you laughing so much. More than just a fun read it's also a saucy, modern fable that offers food for thought about distancing ourselves from our stresses, thwarted dreams and frustrations and working out what is really important." (Daily Express)"Funny, well observed and moving. This book will make you smile" (Candis)"I laughed a thousand times and cried once. I rushed through it." (Christina Hopkinson, author of The Pile of Stuff at the Bottom of the Stairs)
